The opioid crisis and mental health issues have brought many children into a relative's care. These open forum discussions give caregivers the opportunities to talk with others in situations similar to their own and the chance to discuss any challenges they may be facing today.

Bring your questions and concerns about the following or any others you are experiencing:

- Children's rights
 - De Facto Custodian Law
 - Establishing parent time frame before "Termination of Parental Rights"
- Support for children in relative care
 - Mental health services / trauma support
 - Childcare and extra curricular activities
