Gillette Visitor Center

To register for a classroom program, email Sophie Riley at RileyS12@Michigan.gov or call 231-563-1696.

Forest Fungi

Join us from Hoffmaster State Park as we explore the fascinating fungi of the forest! Your third through fourth grade students will take a closer look at how fungi are classified and what makes these organisms so unique.

Supervillains of the Outdoors

In this session, your third through fourth grade students will learn about invasive "troublemaker" species, how they differ from the native species they disrupt and what actions we can take to protect local ecosystems.

Erosion Commotion

What is erosion, how does it impact trails and wildlife, and what can we do to prevent it? Your third through fourth grade students will investigate these questions and discover real-world ways to care for Michigan's natural spaces.
