

Programs and events May 31 - June 6, 2026

Flint State Park

Michigan.gov/NaturePrograms

Sunday, 5/31	Monday, 6/1	Tuesday, 6/2	Wednesday, 6/3	Thursday, 6/4	Friday, 6/5	Saturday, 6/6
No programs today.	No programs today.	Mott Park Game Night Wilderness Survival Mott Park - 2401 Nolen Dr, Flint, MI 48504. Meet at the Playground across the street. Join us as we team up with the Mott Park Association Game Nights for a full hands-on outdoor adventure! From wilderness survival and disc golf to archery and fishing — there's something for everyone. Come explore, play, and discover with us! For all ages and abilities. Time: 7-9 p.m.	Rec Wednesday! Wilderness Survival Mott Park - 2401 Nolen Dr, Flint, MI 48504. Meet in the Parking Lot. Every Wednesday this summer, Flint State Park educators are bringing you recreation activities to try! This week's adventure: learning all about how to filter water, build fires, and the ten essentials of survival. Come spend some time outside and rec out with us! For all ages and abilities. Time: 4-5 p.m.	No programs today.	Nature Storytime An Egg is Quiet Chevy Commons - N Chevrolet Ave, Flint, MI 48503. Meet in the Parking Lot. Sprout a love of reading and nature during Nature Storytime. We will share books, songs, games, and make a craft. Suggested for preschoolers and early elementary. Time: 11-12:30 p.m. Pre-registration required by 6/4/2026 on geneseecountyparks.org	Science Saturday Birding Hike Mott Park - 2401 Nolen Dr, Flint, MI 48504 Meet in the Parking Lot This summer, watch for our Science Saturdays, featuring guest community scientists who bring their specialties to life with exciting, interactive learning experiences. This week we are going to be guided on a birding hike through different habitats and learn all about our feathered friends. Suggested for ages 12 and up. Adults must accompany children. Time: 10-11:30 a.m.

Michigan.gov

All programs are free.

