Manufacturer & Wholesalers Section License & Permit Types

Brewer - License issued by the Commission to manufacture an unlimited quantity of beer. The Brewer must be located in Michigan, although they may have other brewing facilities located outside of this state. A Brewer may obtain additional Brewer or other manufacturing licenses for facilities located in Michigan. Michigan statute prohibits a Brewer from holding any interest in a retail or wholesale license. A brewer may hold interest in another licensed entity in the supplier tier under the provisions of MCL 436.1603(8). Brewers may sell beer they produce to licensed wholesalers who may resell the beer to licensed retailers. Brewers may not sell beer directly to licensed retailers. Brewers may sell their beer to consumers for on-premises sales and consumption at not more than two of the brewers licensed locations in Michigan. An investigation by the Commission's Enforcement Division is required along with local governing body approval. Annual license fee is $50.00 for brewers producing less than 15,000 barrels per year; $50.00 plus $50.00 for each 1,000 barrels production over 15,000 barrels per year up to a maximum annual fee of $1,000.00. Annual license fee is based on previous year's production.

Micro Brewer - License issued by the Commission to manufacture up to 60,000 barrels of beer annually. A Micro Brewer must be located in Michigan, although they may have other brewing facilities located outside of this state. A micro brewer may obtain additional micro brewer or other manufacturing licenses for facilities located in Michigan. Total combined production of all locations may not exceed 60,000 barrels per year. Michigan statute prohibits a micro brewer from holding any interest in a retail or wholesale license. A micro brewer may hold interest in another licensed entity in the supplier tier under the provisions of MCL 436.1603(8). Micro Brewers may sell beer they manufacture to licensed wholesalers who may resell the beer to licensed retailers. Micro Brewers may not sell beer directly to licensed retailers unless they meet the definition of a "qualified micro brewer" who produces less than 1,000 barrels of beer per year. A micro brewer that self-distributes to retail licensees must file a schedule of net cash prices to retailers with the Commission, must have employees deliver the beer, must obtain a decal from the Commission for all vehicles used in making deliveries, and cannot deliver beer in a sales territory that the qualified micro brewer granted to a wholesaler. Micro Brewers may sell beer to consumers at their brewery for either on-premises consumption or for take-out with no additional license. An investigation by the Commission's Enforcement Division is required along with local governing body approval. Annual license fee is $50.00 for brewers producing less than 15,000 barrels per year; $50.00 plus $50.00 for each 1,000 barrels production over 15,000 barrels per year up to a maximum annual fee of $800.00. Annual license fee is based on previous year's production.

Brewpub - License issued by the Commission to manufacture up to 18,000 barrels of beer annually. A Brewpub must also hold an on-premises license (Class C, Tavern, A-Hotel, B-Hotel or Resort) issued by the Commission. A Brewpub must operate a full service restaurant with at least 25% gross sales from non-alcoholic items. Brewpubs may sell beer they manufacture to consumers only for either on-premises consumption or for take-out. Brewpubs may not sell beer they manufacture to wholesalers or retailers. A person may have interest in up to five Brewpubs with the total combined production of all locations not to exceed 18,000 barrels per year. Brewpubs may not hold interest in any license in the "supplier" or "wholesale" licensing tier. An investigation by the Commission's Enforcement Division is required along with local governing body approval. Annual license fee is $100.00.

Wine Maker - License issued by the Commission to manufacture an unlimited quantity of wine in Michigan. A Wine Maker may obtain additional winery or other manufacturing licenses for facilities located in Michigan. Wine Makers may sell wine they manufacture to licensed wholesalers, licensed retailers or directly to consumers for take-out. Wine Makers may offer free samples or may include a charge for samples to consumers from the winery premises. Wine Makers may also sell wine they manufacture to consumers for on-premise consumption in a restaurant operated at the winery manufacturing premises. An investigation by the Commission's Enforcement Division is required along with local governing body approval. Annual license fee is $100.00.

Small Wine Maker - License issued by the Commission to manufacture up to 50,000 gallons of wine annually. A Small Wine Maker may obtain additional small wine maker or other manufacturing licenses for facilities located in Michigan. Total combined production of all locations may not exceed 50,000 gallons per year. Small Wine Makers may sell wine to licensed wholesalers, licensed retailers or directly to consumers for take-out. Small Wine Makers may also sell wine to consumers for on-premises consumption from a restaurant operated at the winery manufacturing premises. Small Wine Makers may offer free samples or may include a charge for samples to consumers from the winery premises. An investigation by the Commission's Enforcement Division is required along with local governing body approval. Annual license fee is $25.00.

The tasting room may offer free samples or may include a charge for samples to consumers of the wine produced by that wine maker or small wine maker. May sell wine to consumers for off-premise consumption only. An investigation by the Commission's Enforcement Division is required. No local approval is required for this type of license. Annual license fee is $100.00.

Manufacturer of Brandy - License issued by the Commission to manufacture brandy as defined by the Alcohol, Tobacco, Tax & Trade Bureau (TTB) regulations. A brandy manufacturer must be located in Michigan and must hold a Michigan wine maker or small wine maker license at the same location and in same legal entity. A brandy manufacturer may sell brandy it manufactures directly to consumers for take-out from the manufacturing premises. Sales to consumers for take-out must be for not less than the uniform price set by the Commission. A brandy manufacturer may sell brandy it manufactures to consumers for on-premises consumption from a restaurant operated at the brandy manufacturing premises. An investigation by the Commission's Enforcement Division is required along with local governing body approval. Annual license fee is $100.00.

Brandy Tasting Room – License issued by the Commission to a manufacturer of brandy to operate an off-site tasting room located away from the licensed brandy premises. The brandy tasting room must be under the control of the licensed brandy manufacturer and may not be operated in conjunction with any other retail licensee. The tasting room may offer free samples to consumers of the brandy produced by that brandy manufacturer. May sell brandy to consumers for off-premise consumption only, for not less than the uniform price set by the Commission. An investigation by the Commission's Enforcement Division is required. No local approval is required for this type of license. Annual license fee is $100.00.

Manufacturer of Mixed Spirit Drink - License issued by the Commission to manufacture mixed spirit drinks, commonly known as spirit coolers, that are spirit based beverages containing 10% or less alcohol by volume. A manufacturer of mixed spirit drink must be located in Michigan. A manufacturer of mixed spirit drink may obtain additional manufacturer of mixed spirit drink or other manufacturing licenses for facilities located in Michigan. A manufacturer of mixed spirit drink may sell mixed spirit drinks to licensed Michigan Wholesalers who may resell to licensed Michigan retailers who hold a license that allows them to sell mixed spirit drink products (e.g. SDD, Class C, or B-Hotel). A mixed spirit drink manufacturer may not sell directly to retailers or consumers. An investigation by the Commission's Enforcement Division is required. Annual license fee is $100.00.

Manufacturer of Spirits - License issued by the Commission to manufacture spirits. The manufacturer of spirits must be located in Michigan. A manufacturer of spirits may obtain additional manufacturer of spirits or other manufacturing licenses for facilities located in Michigan. All spirit products are sold to the Commission by a vendor of spirits. A manufacturer of spirits may act as the vendor of spirits or may appoint someone to be their vendor of spirits. The Commission acts as the wholesaler of spirits and resells to Michigan retail licensees. A manufacturer of spirits may offer free samples to consumers at their manufacturing facility but may not sell spirits to consumers for either on-premises consumption or for take-out. An investigation by the Commission's Enforcement Division is required along with local governing body approval. Annual license fee is $1,000.00.
