

MICHIGAN CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION
JOB SPECIFICATION
CIVIL RIGHTS REPRESENTATIVE

JOB DESCRIPTION

Employees in this job, as members of a cross-functional team perform professional assignments involving the review, investigation and resolution of complaints of discrimination in employment, education, housing and public accommodation. Also, employees provide intervention, training and outreach services to public and private organizations to provide information about civil rights laws and legislation, methodologies that promote non-discrimination, and to provide leadership and expertise to resolve real or to avoid potential discriminatory actions.

There are five classifications in this job.

Position Code Title - Civil Rights Rep Dptl Tr-E

Civil Rights Representative (Departmental Trainee) 9

This is the entry level and serves as a parallel classification to the Civil Rights Representative 9 for classified state employees who do not possess a degree. The work performed is identical to an entry-level Civil Rights Representative 9; i.e., the employee carries out a range of professional civil rights representative assignments while learning the methods of the work.

Position Code Title - Civil Rights Representative-E

Civil Rights Representative 9

This is the entry level. The employee carries out a range of professional civil rights representative assignments as described above while learning the methods of the work.

Civil Rights Representative 10

This is the intermediate level. The employee carries out an expanding range of professional civil rights representative assignments in a developing capacity.

Civil Rights Representative P11

This is the experienced level. The employee performs the full range of professional civil rights representative assignments in a full-functioning capacity. Considerable independent judgement is required to carry out assignments that have significant impact on services or programs. Guidelines may be available, but frequently require adaptation or interpretation to determine appropriate courses of action

Position Code Title - Civil Rights Representative-A

Civil Rights Representative 12

This is the advanced level. The employee may function as a lead worker or senior worker. At this level, employees are responsible for overseeing the work assignments of other professionals or have regular assignments which have been recognized by Civil Service as having significantly greater complexity than those assigned at the experienced level.
