

DETENTION ORDER
Michigan Department of Human Services

Minimum distribution, 2 copies: one copy to be retained; one copy to be given to appropriate peace officer who will take the juvenile into custody

Reply to: _____

The undersigned, being in receipt of a requisition (Form I or II) made pursuant to the Interstate Compact on Juveniles, and calling for the detention of _____

(Name of Juvenile)

a juvenile, who, according to facts duly recited in said requisition, has _____

(In the above blank spaces indicate whether the juvenile has run away from home, or has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution; also indicate the jurisdiction from which he ran away, absconded or escaped.) and whose return is being sought by _____

(Jurisdiction Seeking Return)

_____ hereby orders any _____

(Designate appropriate peace officer)

in receipt hereof and subject to the jurisdiction or direction of the undersigned to take custody of and detail said juvenile as requested in said requisition pending disposition of proceedings which may be taken pursuant to the Interstate Compact on Juveniles.

Said requisition, which was issued from _____

(Issuing Authority)

in _____, in the state of _____,

(Location)

(Name of State)

which state is also party to the Interstate Compact on Juveniles, is on file with the undersigned.

| | | |
|----------------------------------|-------|------|
| Signature | Title | Date |
| Name of Court or Other Authority | | |

(To be signed and formalized in accordance with existing practice, by "court or the executive authority" to whom the demanding state has addressed a requisition. See Articles IV and V of the Compact in connection with his form).

Department of Human Services (DHS) will not discriminate against any individual or group because of race, sex, religion, age, national origin, color, height, weight, marital status, political beliefs or disability. If you need help with reading, writing, hearing, etc., under the Americans with Disabilities Act, you are invited to make your needs known to a DHS office in your area.