

MICHIGAN CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION
JOB SPECIFICATION

HISTORIAN MANAGER

JOB DESCRIPTION

Employees in this job serve as managers, overseeing a variety of historical work including the study, preservation, analysis, interpretation, and presentation of Michigan history and historical artifacts at a historical agency. General methods and procedures are available but may not be fully applicable to overseeing human and material resources; therefore, the employee must exercise considerable independent judgment in adapting and applying guidelines to specific situations. The work requires knowledge of the policies, procedures, and regulations associated with history programs, and supervisory techniques, personnel policies, and procedures.

There are four classifications in this job. The information provided under each position code title represents a general description of the classification concept. To determine the appropriate level of the manager position, application of the Professional Managerial Position Evaluation System is required.
