

MICHIGAN CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION
JOB SPECIFICATION

HISTORIAN

JOB DESCRIPTION

Employees in this job complete and oversee a variety of professional assignments involving the study, preservation, analysis, interpretation, and presentation of Michigan history and historical artifacts, records, and sites at a museum, historical site, archives, publication office, or historical site preservation office.

There are four classifications in this job.

Position Code Title - Historian-E

Historian 9

This is the entry level. As a trainee, the employee carries out a range of professional historian assignments while learning the methods of the work.

Historian 10

This is the intermediate level. The employee performs an expanding range of professional historian assignments in a developing capacity.

Historian P11

This is the experienced level. The employee performs a full range of professional historian assignments in a full-functioning capacity. Considerable independent judgment is used to make decisions in carrying out assignments that have significant impact on services or programs. Guidelines may be available, but require adaptation or interpretation to determine appropriate courses of action.

Position Code Title - Historian-A

Historian 12

This is the advanced level. The employee may function as a lead worker or senior worker. At this level, employees are responsible for overseeing the work assignments of other professionals or have regular assignments which have been recognized by Civil Service as having significantly greater complexity than those assigned at the experienced level.

NOTE: Employees generally progress through this series to the experienced level based on satisfactory performance and possession of the required experience.
