MICHIGAN CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION
JOB SPECIFICATION

HUMAN RESOURCES DEVELOPER

JOB DESCRIPTION
Employees in this job complete and oversee a variety of professional assignments to plan, develop, conduct, and/or evaluate training and development or other informational programs. Work includes coordinating and conducting training sessions, workshops, conferences, and seminars on a variety of issues. Programs may be designed to train and develop departmental employees or to inform or educate external customers regarding state programs and services.

There are five classifications in this job.

Position Code Title - Human Resrcs Dvlpr Trainee-E
Human Resources Developer (Departmental Trainee) 9
This is the entry level and serves as a parallel classification to the Human Resources Developer 9 for classified state employees who do not possess a degree. The work performed is identical to an entry-level Human Resources Developer 9; i.e., the employee carries out a range of professional human resources developer assignments while learning the methods of the work.

Position Code Title - Human Resources Developer-E
Human Resources Developer 9
This is the entry level. The employee carries out a range of professional human resources developer assignments while learning the methods of the work.

Human Resources Developer 10
This is the intermediate level. The employee performs an expanding range of professional human resources developer assignments in a developing capacity.

Human Resources Developer P11
The employee performs a full range of professional human resources developer assignments in a full-functioning capacity. Considerable independent judgment is used to make decisions in carrying out assignments that have significant impact on services or programs. Guidelines may be available, but require adaptation or interpretation to determine appropriate courses of action.

Position Code Title - Human Resources Developer-A
Human Resources Developer 12
The employee may function as a lead worker or senior worker. At this level, employees are responsible for overseeing the work assignments of other professionals or have regular assignments that have been recognized by Civil Service as having significantly greater complexity than those assigned at the experienced level.

NOTE: Employees generally progress through this series to the experienced level based on satisfactory performance and possession of the required experience.
