XVI. PRESIDENT'S REPORT

A. Education Delivery System and School Finance

Mrs. Straus said on June 16, 2005, she and Mrs. Curtin had a follow-up meeting with Representative Craig DeRoche, Speaker of the House; Representative Brian Palmer, Chairman of the House Education Committee; Representative John Moolenaar, Chair of the Appropriations Subcommittee on State Aid; and Mr. Robert Morris, Legislative Director. She said the topic was the Board’s proposed study of delivery of education services and their costs. Speaker DeRoche, Representative Palmer, and Representative Moolenaar were still in support of adding partial funding for the study to the State Aid bill. Mrs. Straus said, to date, that has not occurred; however Mr. Morris will continue to work with the Speaker and his colleagues as the appropriations process moves forward.

B. Meeting with Nancy Flanagan and Lauren Childs

Mrs. Straus said she had a very pleasant meeting with Ms. Nancy Flanagan, a former Michigan Teacher of the Year, and Milken Educator; and Ms. Lauren Childs, Oakland Schools; to discuss the work of the Educator Network, and how these outstanding teachers and educators can be valuable resources to the Board.

C. Legislative Subcommittee Meeting

Mrs. Straus said Mrs. Curtin, Mrs. McGuire, and she were in Lansing for a Legislative Subcommittee Meeting on June 21, 2005. She said the purpose of the Subcommittee is to discuss current bills and issues the Board might want to initiate. She said all Board members were provided a copy of a Legislative Notebook containing legislation, bill analyses, and status reports on the legislation. She said updates will be mailed so that Board members can maintain a current notebook.

D. Alternative Schools

Mrs. Straus said she met with directors of adult and alternative education programs on June 23, 2005, in Lansing. Ms. Carol Edinger, Facilitator of the Alternative Education Focus Group, established by Michigan Association of Community and Adult Education, invited her to attend and it was a very informative meeting. She said she was pleased to learn of the wide range of alternative education programs in large and small school districts in rural and urban settings. Mrs. Straus said she believes it is important for alternative education to be represented during the upcoming discussions regarding high school, as well as having alternative education programs as a presentation topic at a future Board meeting.

E. NCREL Board of Directors Meeting

Mrs. Straus said she attended a meeting of the Board of Directors of North Central Regional Educational Lab on July 28-29, 2005, in Illinois. She said there were presentations on high school reform by several states, which will be useful during the Board’s discussions at the July 28, 2005, meeting on improving outcomes for high school students.
