3. Definition

A. Definition in This Regulation.

1. P-rate compensation means a special pay premium that is assigned to eligible positions in addition to the classification's regular compensation.

4. Standards

- A. An employee is eligible for P-rate compensation if the employee's position has been assigned responsibility for custody or supervision of prisoners in the Department of Corrections on a regular and recurring basis, in addition to regular job duties.
1. The position must be located within an institution under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections, Correctional Facilities Administration, or at a Corrections Center in the Field Operations Administration.
  2. No two employees are given credit for supervising the same prisoners.
  3. Positions in other agencies must supervise prisoners assigned from the Department of Corrections, Correctional Facilities Administration.
- B. An employee is eligible for P-rate compensation if the employee's position is located at a correctional facility or the Center for Forensic Psychiatry and handles, on a regular and recurring basis, the personal, financial, or other matters affecting the well-being of prisoners or forensic patients.

An employee who handles the personal, financial, or other matters affecting the well-being of prisoners or forensic patients must have regular recurring and face-to-face contact with them. The work being performed must be of such a nature that it could create an adversarial relationship with the employee. Regular, recurring, and face-to-face contact is defined as contact with prisoners or forensic patients in person, 25 percent or more of the time, in an environment that could permit a physical act to occur. Work performed that could create an adversarial relationship is defined as those situations when there is a reasonable chance of a difference of opinion leading to a physical attack by a prisoner or forensic patient.

- C. An employee is eligible for P-rate compensation if the employee's work location is within the security perimeter of a correctional facility or the Center of Forensic Psychiatry, thereby placing the employee in an environment where physical confrontation could occur.
- D. An employee is not eligible for P-rate compensation if classified in the following classifications identified in Part 1B, Special Increase, of the minutes from the December 14, 1978, Civil Service Commission meeting (as updated with the current nonexclusively represented classifications):

Assistant Resident Unit Supervisor 11	Forensic Security Supervisor 11
Corrections Security Inspector 13	Forensic Security Supervisor 12
Corrections Shift Supervisor 11	Forensic Security Supervisor 13
Corrections Shift Supervisor 12	Resident Unit Officer E10
Corrections Shift Supervisor 13

- E. Agency policies may require employees with regular work locations outside the security perimeter to assume custodial responsibilities in emergency situations (disturbances, riots, etc.). Such situations are not considered “regular and recurring” and do not qualify a position for P-rate compensation.
- F. Incidental contact, such as passing by a prisoner porter, does not qualify for P-rate compensation.
- G. Appeals of staff decisions on P-rate compensation for individual positions are processed through the technical appeal process established in regulation 8.02.
- H. If an employee vacates a position previously approved for P-rate compensation, the new employee may be assigned P-rate compensation without Civil Service review if the employee is performing the same duties.
- I. If an employee receiving P-rate compensation moves to another position, the new position must be reviewed by Civil Service for the continuation of P-rate compensation.
- J. When a change occurs to an employee’s position, whereby the employee is no longer eligible for P-rate compensation, the P-rate assignment must be removed by the Appointing Authority.
