The meeting will begin at its scheduled time, but members of the public may access the meeting at the above phone number 15 minutes before it begins. In order to minimize disruptions, until the time designated by the Commission for public comment, members of the public will be muted to the Commission and other attendees and participants.

During the time designated by the Commission for public comment, members of public will no longer be muted and may participate and provide their comments by orderly speaking using the microphone on their phone.

All quorum rules still apply. In the event of a disconnection caused by the meeting host, the Commission will be considered to be in recess. Every effort will be made to reestablish a publicly accessible connection. If the host is unable to do so within a period of 30 minutes from the time of the disconnection, the Commission will adjourn and not address any new business until its next meeting. Any decisions made prior to the disconnection will be binding. The Commission will not recess or adjourn due to technical or other issues experienced by individual members of the public that render them unable to attend or participate in the meeting.

To allow for broad public attendance and participation, including for persons with disabilities, members of the public may access this meeting by both web and phone and provide either oral or written comments. Members of the public who wish to contact members of the Commission to provide input or ask questions on any business that will come before the Commission may email the Commission at: AG-Human-Trafficking-Commission@michigan.gov.

Persons with disabilities needing accommodations for effective participation in this meeting should contact (517) 335-7569 at least 48 hours before the scheduled meeting, to request mobility, visual, hearing, or other assistance.
