

Forum on the Legal and Policy Issues Raised by Vanguard's Proposed Purchase of the Detroit Medical Center

May 6, 2010
Wayne State University Law School

I Introduction and Background: 1-1:30

- 1) "History, Background and Policy Context," Peter Hammer, Professor of Law, Wayne State University Law School
- 2) "The Structure of the Proposed Vanguard-DMC Transaction," Charles N. Raimi, Deputy General Counsel, DMC
- 3) "Legal Issues for Attorney General Review," Gary A. Benjamin, Staff Attorney, Health Care and Transit, Michigan Legal Services

II Academic Panel: Profits, Non-Profits and Valuing Assets in Health Care: 1:30-2:30

- 1) Jill R. Horwitz, Professor of Law, University of Michigan, "Nonprofit v. For-Profit Health Care: What's at stake?"
- 2) Jane Banaszak-Holl, Professor of Health Management and Policy, University of Michigan, "Managerial Roles in Balancing Local vs. Corporate Interests in Health Care Chains."
- 3) Dean Smith, Professor, of Health Management and Policy, University of Michigan, "Public and Private Valuations of Healthcare Assets."
- 4) Jack Wheeler, Professor of Health Management and Policy, University of Michigan, "The Return on Vanguard's Investment."

III Panel of Community Stakeholders: What is at Stake for the Community and the Safety Net?: 2:30-3:30

- 1) Lucille Smith, Executive Director, Voices of Detroit Initiative, "Building Strong Health Care Communities Where Hope Can Grow."
- 2) Marjorie Mitchell, Executive Director MichUHCAN
- 3) Valerie Przywara, Member MOSES Board of Directors and Chair the MOSES Health Care Task Force, "Community Involvement - A MOSES Perspective."
- 4) Dr. Andre Lee, Board Member, National Association of Health Service Executives

IV Concluding Remarks