

Discrimination

Civil rights discrimination is when someone treats you differently because you do not look like them and because your family may not do things the same way their family does.

kids because they do not look like you, talk like you or have the same abilities as you, then you are discriminating.

The law says you can go to school with children who have lighter or darker skin than you do. Everyone can live in the same neighborhood.

If you do not play with

We Can
All Play
Together

A picture for you to color