

Charity Game Ticket Vending Machines

Most veteran and fraternal clubs sell charity game tickets through the use of ticket vending machines, significantly freeing up bartenders and other staff to do their jobs. Thirteen licensed suppliers are authorized to sell charity game tickets. The following suppliers also provide and service ticket vending machines:

Higgins Bingo Supplies

proudly serves the whole U.P. with American Games Maxim ticket vending machines.

Please call for availability and pricing on new and refurbished machines.

Call Jim Higgins at 906-228-6954.

Novelty House is an authorized representative for Arrow International and American Games ticket vending machines providing sales and service for Wayne, Oakland, and Macomb counties.

Call 800-633-4477 for current promotions.

Black Jack's sells and services machines from these manufacturers:

- Technik
- Arrow
- American Games
- Bingo King

We offer several choices for new and pre-owned ticket vending machines.

Call Chris at 231-238-4000.

35 years of experience

K-D Sales provides FREE labor to regular customers on all machine repairs.

Service provided Monday–Saturday, 9am–6pm.

FREE shipping or delivery on products.

Response time for service or repairs on Technik and American Games machines is within 48 hours of call.

Call Robert O. Simpson Jr at 269-207-7935.

Blue Bay South offers several options to purchase, rent, or lease our new, used, or rebuilt ticket vending machines. Call for current availability on used machines.

Largest supplier in the state with five full time technicians for fast repair time.

Committed to our customers and desire to continue to improve.

Call us at 517-783-1832.

Advance Novelty sells and services both new and used ticket vending machines (based on availability). Monthly payment plans are available.

Call Bob Green at 800-218-7171 for details and special pricing.