

Informational Sheet: Minimum Wage

Youth Training Wage

The Improved Workforce Opportunity Wage Act, Public Act 337 of 2018, as amended, allows workers under the age of 20 to be paid a training wage for the first 90 days of employment under certain conditions. The statutory provisions covering the training wage can be found at Section 4b(1) 408.934b(1) of the Michigan Compiled Laws. Anyone interested in information on the training wage should consult the statute for the complete text.

An employer covered by the Improved Workforce Opportunity Wage Act may pay a newly hired employee 16 through 19 years of age a training wage of $4.25 per hour for the first 90 days of employment.

The following conditions apply to the training wage:

- An employer may not discharge, layoff or displace another employee or reduce the hours, wages or benefits of an employee to hire a worker at the training wage.
- The overtime rate of pay for a worker subject to the training wage provisions is $6.38 per hour; 1-1/2 times the regular hourly rate of $4.25.
- The training wage period covers 90 days regardless of whether the employment occurs in a single year or over 1 or more years, employment seasons, or employment periods.
- A change in employment classification, duties, or occupation does not extend the training wage period.
- Employers who violate the training wage provisions are subject to payment of minimum wages, liquidated damages, and a civil fine of up to $1,000.00.
