Table 3 outlines applicable per-offender charges. Charges are based on an offender case rate for each category, and payment is made incrementally as an offender moves through referral, assessment, and treatment. The pricing structure covers all services for up to 270 days after release, with the opportunity for up to two 90-day extensions upon approval from the MDOC. In addition to applicable per-offender charges, the contractor receives a monthly administrative fee of $36,000. Average cost per offender will depend on numbers of offenders served by service category and by length of time services are provided.
