Registration Open for 36th Annual Michigan Statewide Conference Child Abuse & Neglect: Prevention, Assessment & Treatment

October 23-24, 2017
The Inn at St. John's - Plymouth, MI

This year's two-day conference features noted national and Michigan experts who will address a range of topics in the field of child abuse prevention, assessment, and treatment. In addition to the keynote presentations and plenary session that feature Suzanne P. Starling, James R. Marsh, and Allen Klein, attendees will have a choice of over 30 workshops focusing on recent advances and best practices in the areas of prevention, medical issues, child advocacy, and law enforcement.

The goal is for conference participants to gain knowledge about practice in the field of child abuse throughout the conference and be able to apply this knowledge in the field. Participants will also have opportunities to interact and network with other professionals in the field.

The conference is designed for prevention specialists; social workers; child welfare professionals (children's protective services, foster care, adoption); juvenile justice services; physicians; nurses; mental health and other medical professionals; attorneys; law enforcement; child advocacy professionals; and educators.

Information on the conference is located at www.canconferenceuofm.org. Note that this website does NOT have the registration link that CTF associated registrants use. This website is for general information only. CTF Grant Coordinators will be emailing a special link for CTF associated registrations. Remember participation by at least one representative is a contractual requirement for all Direct Services Programs funded by CTF as well all Local Councils.
