

Leadership Transition at CTF

Michael Foley

Suzanne Greenberg

Beginning Monday, March 18th, Michael “Mike” Foley will begin his retirement and Suzanne Greenberg starts as our Executive Director. The transition is one that has only occurred four times since 1982. CTF is forever grateful for Mike’s outstanding leadership from 2009-2019 and for the smooth transition that has occurred with the hiring of Suzanne Greenberg. Suzanne has served nearly 25 years as the President/CEO at our local council in Saginaw and Bay counties known as CAN Council Great Lakes Bay Region.

The Children’s Trust Fund serves as voice for Michigan’s children and families as well as promotes their health, safety, and welfare by funding effective local programs and services that prevent child abuse and neglect. As we embark on the road ahead with new leadership, we remain committed to prevention of child abuse and neglect and embrace new and innovative evidence based practices!

The Children’s Trust Fund has flourished in Michigan because of the non-partisan support of compassionate corporations and caring citizens for over a generation. These are people from all corners of our state who faithfully provide a year-end contribution, proudly display their children’s license plate, check-off to donate when they file their taxes, purchase an Heirloom Birth Certificate, or support our Signature Auction Event.

As the state voice for the prevention of child abuse and neglect, we are grateful to stand along with all Michigan citizens to protect our most precious resource. Our supporters include: political representatives who join our cause and work with colleagues across the aisle for the sake of our state’s children; corporate leaders who dedicate limited charitable dollars to our work year after year; partners who work directly with families and communities in all 83 counties each day to maximize their limited resources so that the voice for children rings passionate and effective in every part of our great state!

We invite you to join us as we continue to prevent child abuse and neglect in 2019 and beyond. We want to focus on bringing smiles and laughter to children in the sunshine of pure Michigan, but we realize that first we must prevent their tears and cries in the night. Thank you for your continued support of our critical work!
