ORDER OF ADJOURNMENT

The above-captioned case was noticed for hearing for May 14, 2013. On May 13, 2013, Petitioner's counsel requested an adjournment of this matter after it was discovered that service of the Notice of Hearing in this matter was incomplete. An adjournment of at least 21 days was requested to allow for service of this Order of Adjournment on the parties not previously noticed.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

1. The hearing on Cause No. 06-2013 scheduled for May 14, 2013, is hereby adjourned and converted to a prehearing conference.
2. The hearing on Cause No. 06-2013 is rescheduled for June 25, 2013, at 9:30 a.m.
3. The Petitioner shall serve this Order of Adjournment, its proposed Order Abrogating Order No. 2-2-84, and a copy of the Petition on any interested party not previously served the Notice of Hearing in this matter dated April 4, 2013; and any party who has filed an Answer in this matter.
4. Service of the Notice of Hearing on all other interested parties in this matter is considered complete and service of the Order of Adjournment on those parties is not necessary.
5. If no written objections to Petitioner's proposed Order Abrogating Order No. 2-2-84 are received by June 20, 2013, that Order may be entered without an oral hearing.

Dated: May 14, 2013
