

Michigan Stationary (Point) Source Emission Trends

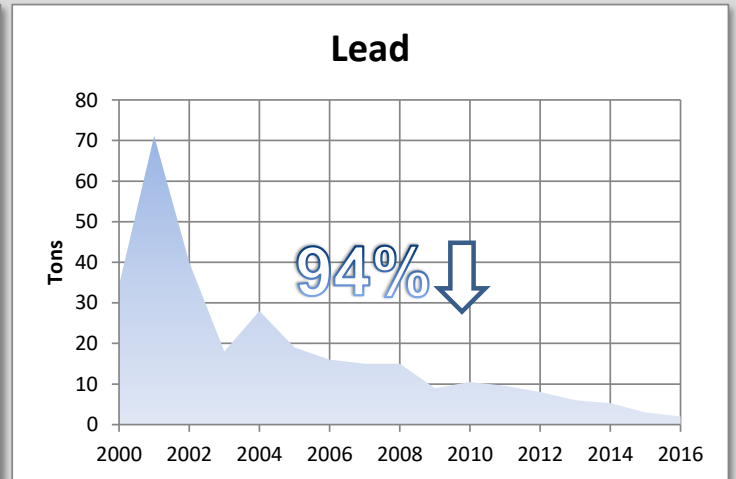

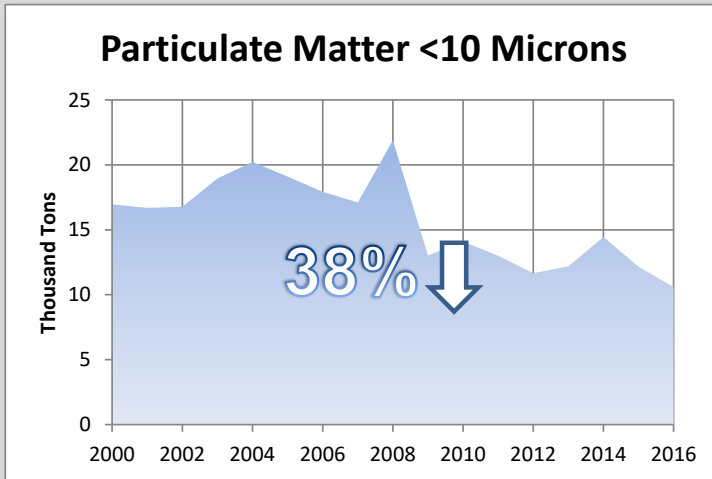

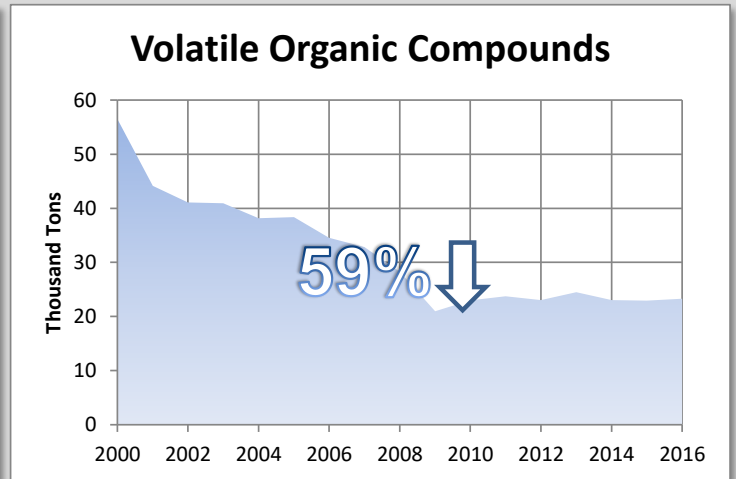

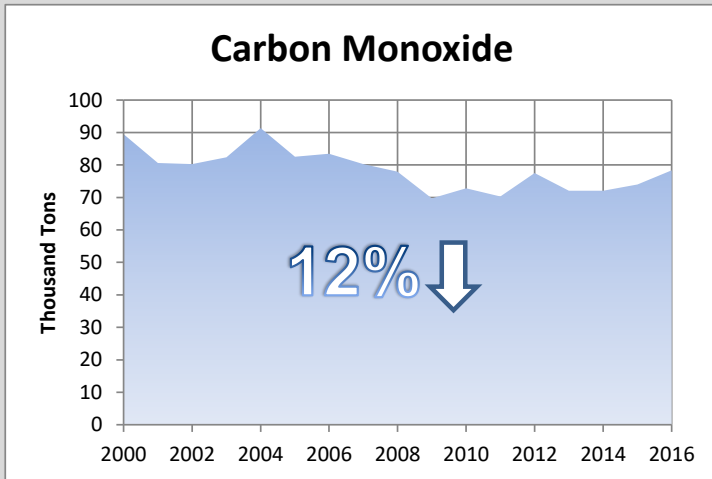

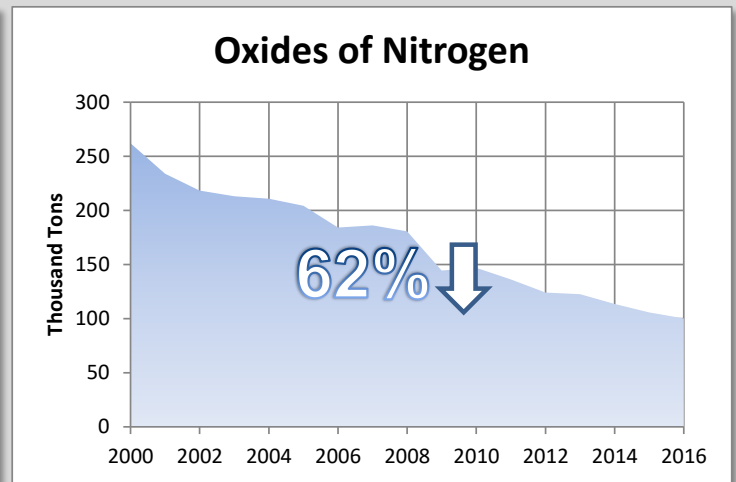

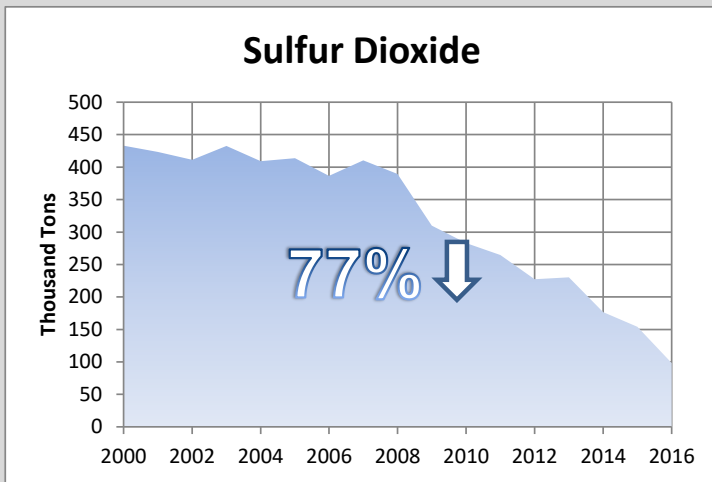

Note:

- 1) Estimating methodologies, emission factors, and data availability can vary year to year. Caution should be exercised when evaluating trends in emission estimations and should only be interpreted in a qualitative manner.
- 2) The criteria emissions estimate data presented here represents the data reported from the facilities and is subject to limited quality assurance efforts by DEQ to identify, verify, and correct outlier data.

Source:

Michigan Air Emissions Reporting System (MAERS)
 Michigan Department of Environmental Quality - Air Quality Division

Michigan Stationary (Point) Source Emission Trends

*percent reduction from 2000 levels

Note:

- 1) Estimating methodologies, emission factors, and data availability can vary year to year. Caution should be exercised when evaluating trends in emission estimations and should only be interpreted in a qualitative manner.
- 2) The criteria emissions estimate data presented here represents the data reported from the facilities and is subject to limited quality assurance efforts by DEQ to identify, verify, and correct outlier data.

Source:

Michigan Air Emissions Reporting System (MAERS)
Michigan Department of Environmental Quality - Air Quality Division