

Protecting Drinking Water with Innovative Tools

Michigan Groundwater Management Tool (MGMT)

Sponsored By

Michigan Department of Environmental Quality (MDEQ) and Michigan State University (MSU)

Wednesday, July 15, 2015

Diamond Center at the Suburban Collection Showplace

<http://diamondbanquetcenter.com/directions>

46100 Grand River Avenue

Novi, MI

8:45 - 9:15 am	Workshop Registration and Packet Distribution
9:15 – 9:30	Welcome, Introductions and Overview of the Day – Ruth Kline-Robach, MSU
9:30 - 10:00	The History of Source Water Protection – Jason Berndt, MDEQ
10:00-10:15	Break
10:15-11:00	Basic Hydrogeology and Groundwater Flow Model – Wayne Kukuk, MDEQ
11:00 - Noon	MGMT Overview and Application of the Products - Brant Fisher, MDEQ
Noon - 1:00 pm	Lunch
1:00 - 1:45	Michigan's Source Water Assessment Program – Jason Berndt, MDEQ
1:45 - 2:45	CONCURRENT SESSIONS: Non-Municipal Community Water Supplies and Nontransient Noncommunity Water Supplies – Mark Doyle, MDEQ Using the Source Water Protection Self-Assessment Guide Putting It All Together (working session to review individual information) Municipal Community Water Supplies - – Kelly Hon, Michigan Rural Water Association Michigan's Wellhead Protection Program – Program Elements and Community Examples Putting It All Together (working session to review individual information)
2:45 - 3:00	GENERAL SESSION: Wrap-Up Discussion and Q & A – Ruth Kline-Robach, MSU
3:00	Adjourn