Earth Day Celebration

April 23, 2016

Cascades Park
1401 N. Brown St. Jackson, MI 49202

Every April, the Jackson Area Outdoor Coalition hosts an Earth Day Celebration in Cascades Park to spread the word about living a little greener in Jackson, MI.

- Learn how you can recycle
- Learn how to bring native plants and wildlife back to your landscape (even in the city)
- Learn how to paddle in the Cascade lagoons
- Learn how to fish
- Learn how to identify birds and butterflies
- Kids can make a variety of crafts, plant flowers to take home, and even try their luck at making a slushy with a human-powered blender! There are lots of activities for the whole family, and the event is free.
