B. Use of Estimates in the Preparation of the Financial Statements

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with Statutory Accounting Principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities. It also requires disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Notes to Financial Statement

11. Method of establishing claim and CAE reserves

2021 is the Company's first year of operations. Accordingly, there is limited historical claims data to calculate completion factor-based reserves and a membership base with limited credibility. As such, the Company uses a combination of a historical completion factor approach in conjunction with run rate performance and manual rate projections to inform IBNR estimates for part C. An additional explicit 5% margin is added to the actuarial best estimate of IBNR as a provision for adverse deviation.

Medicare Part D (Rx) is based on actual Pharmacy Benefits Management (PBM) invoiced amounts. Based on timing of weekly invoices from the PBM, an additional accrual is added to cover the span from the last day covered by the Part D invoices to end of month. Since pharmacy scripts are filled immediately at the point of service, no additional IBNR accruals are added to the pharmacy invoice amounts received by the PBM month.

Claim Adjustment Expense Reserves:

Claims adjustment expense booked is equal to 3% of the IBNR estimate.

12. Capitalization Policy

Zing Health of Michigan, Inc. does not possess any fixed assets given the services requiring the acquisition of fixed assets are covered by the Management Services Agreement filed with the Department of Insurance (Form D). These services are provided by Zing Health Holdings, Inc.

Zing Health Holdings, Inc. does have a formal capitalization and depreciation policy that guides its accounting, which can be submitted upon request to the Department of Insurance.
