FINAL DECISION

In a notice of hearing issued November 15, 2010, the staff of the Office of Financial and Insurance Regulation (OFIR) alleged that Respondent failed to comply with provisions of the Michigan Insurance Code in connection with various title insurance transactions. Staff requests that this compliance case be dismissed because the Respondent agency was dissolved as a corporate entity in 2006 and because the resident producer license of Scott Kissner, the agency's sole shareholder, was revoked in 2006 for the conduct which is the subject of this case.

Therefore, it is ORDERED that this matter is dismissed.
