

DTMB Purchasing wins 2010 "Achievement of Excellence in Procurement" Award

The State of Michigan has been recognized as a national leader in purchasing by a government purchasing professional organization. The National Purchasing Institute's "Achievement of Excellence in Procurement" designation is earned by organizations that demonstrate innovation, professionalism, productivity, e-procurement, and leadership attributes of the procurement organization.

