

Berrien County

Berrien Conservation District – USDA Marshall Service Center, 3334 Edgewood Road, Berrien Springs, Michigan 49103

Contact: <http://berrienconservationdistrict.webs.com/> or phone (269) 471-9111 Ext. 3

Water quality, sustainable best management practices, native plants and more. Please contact the Berrien Conservation District directly for current information on educational programming and events.

Fernwood Botanical Garden and Nature Preserve – 13988 Range Line Road, Niles, Michigan 49120

Contact: <http://www.fernwoodbotanical.org/> or phone (269) 695-6491

Offers a Pond Study for Kids class, as well as classes teaching youth about reptiles, amphibians and invasive species (Invasive Aliens are Here!). Please contact the Fernwood Botanical Garden and Nature Preserve directly for current information on educational programming and events.

Four Flags Bassmasters of Michigan B.A.S.S. Nation – Niles, Michigan

Contact: fourflagsbassmasters@michiganbass.net

Offers fishing tournaments and new memberships are welcomed. Please contact Four Flags Bassmasters directly for current information.

Love Creek County Park and Nature Center – 9228 Huckleberry Road, Berrien Center, Michigan 49102

Contact: <http://www.berriencounty.org/parks/?dept=1&pid=186> or phone (269) 471-2617

Offers fishing access and educational programs on the Reptiles and Amphibians of Southwest Michigan with live specimens on display at the nature center. Please contact the Love Creek Park and Nature Center directly for current information on educational programming and events.

Sarett Nature Center – 2300 Benton Center Road, Benton Harbor, Michigan 49022

Contact: <http://www.sarett.com/> or phone (269) 927-4832

Many aquatic and wetland educational programs offered. Please visit the Sarett Nature Center website to view a full listing of current educational programs and events.

Southwest Michigan Steelheaders – P.O. Box 575, St. Joseph, Michigan 49085

Contact: <http://www.michigansteelheaders.org/southwest/southwest.htm>

Offers fishing tournaments and new memberships are welcomed. Please contact Southwest Michigan Steelheaders directly for current information on educational programming and events.