

Sumedh Bahl

Sumedh is the manager of the water treatment services for the City of Ann Arbor, Michigan. His responsibilities as a manager include processing and supplying safe drinking water for the citizens of Ann Arbor, managing City's environmental laboratory, operation of four dams and two hydropower generation facilities. He has been with the City of Ann Arbor for eighteen years. He served on the Michigan Groundwater Conservation Advisory Council. Sumedh holds a MS in Civil Engineering and is a professional engineer licensed in Michigan.