

Ralph A. MacMullan Conference Center

Where inspiration comes naturally.

Nestled on the northern shore of Higgins Lake, the Ralph A. MacMullan Conference Center is available for nonprofit, government and education-based organizations, as well as private businesses with an outdoor- or green-themed agenda. It is owned and operated by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources.

Innovative planning assistance

Professional staff is available to help plan your entire event, from lodging accommodations, conference details and meals to recreational and leisure activities.

Lodging

Combine the fun of summer camp with the facilities of a premier conference center. There is lodging available for up to 135 participants (double occupancy) in lodges.

Food and beverage

Be prepared to indulge in a culinary experience. The rotating menu offers a variety of choices with special seasonal menus offered throughout the year.

Housekeeping

Daily housekeeping is offered in all rooms. To help in conserving Michigan's natural resources and to promote the "green" mission of the center, bed linens are changed by request during the guest's stay. Guests are asked to help in our conservation efforts by reusing towels throughout their stay.

Audiovisual equipment

A wide range of standard and high-tech audio visual equipment is available. On-site technical staff can provide assistance upon request.

Accessibility

The Resource Building, Lake Superior Lodge, Lake Huron Lodge, Straits Lodge and Harry H. Whiteley Conservation Education Building offer barrier-free access. The beach is accessible via a beautiful boardwalk through a small, pristine cedar wetland.
