

Michelle Mull has worked at Michigan Protection & Advocacy Service, Inc. for over 10 years. She earned two Bachelor of Arts degrees in Psychology and Social Psychology at Western Michigan University. She is actively involved in several disability-related initiatives throughout Michigan. In her role as Director of Advocacy, Michelle is responsible for developing systemic initiatives to address abuse, neglect and service-related issues for individuals with disabilities in Michigan.