

Milliken State Harbor

The Motor City doesn't always require roads!

Experience Detroit from the comfort of your cockpit. Milliken State Harbor on the Detroit riverfront is just steps from dining, professional sports, theatre, museums and more. Situated along the RiverWalk, the harbor is a quick bike ride from Eastern Market and all of Detroit's riverfront destinations. Come see the other side of Detroit.

Harbor reservations for Milliken – and all Michigan harbors – can be made up to six months in advance at:

www.michigan.gov/harborreservations

Straits State Harbor

Come together where Huron and Michigan meet!

Plan your next rendezvous at Straits State Harbor,
Michigan's most eco-friendly boating destination.

Featuring eight power-producing windmills, solar-powered lighting, electric harbor vehicles and more, Straits is within walking distance to downtown Mackinaw City shopping, dining, lodging and entertainment.

Harbor reservations for Straits – and all Michigan harbors – can be made up to six months in advance at :

www.michigan.gov/harborreservations