

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

State of Michigan

Chief Information Officer (CIO)

Michigan looking for state CIO to lead enterprise IT

The state of Michigan is looking for a visionary leader to direct the technology efforts as the state Chief Information Officer (CIO). Under the direction of the governor and the Michigan Department of Technology, Management and Budget director, the CIO is responsible for the information technology services within state government, and the coordination and implementation of enterprise IT capabilities and strategies throughout the state of Michigan. Representing the department and state in IT matters at both the state and national level through meetings with the legislature, other state agencies, local governments, interested groups, IT companies, IT economic development organizations, and the general public, this role will advance technology and rapidly deploy strategies across the enterprise, while effectuating positive change for our state departments and citizens.

Have we piqued your interest? Apply Online

Why work for the state of Michigan?

Be the best by leading the best! Michigan was one of the first states in the country to centralize IT across government in 2002, is a recognized leader in cybersecurity, is one of two states in the country to receive five-straight "A" ratings in the Digital States Survey and is regularly honored by organizations and publications for its innovation and effectiveness. In addition, our IT leadership is often recognized as Doers, Dreamers & Drivers of innovative industry change.

The culture at DTMB promotes employee engagement and growth along with customer service. Our employee engagement and customer satisfaction scores regularly outpace national benchmarks. Our team of dedicated professionals is motivated to innovate and continually improve our services.

Pure Michigan isn't just a popular tourist destination, it's a place to grow and thrive.

In Michigan you can find unique hidden gems and get lost in the music of rolling waves and tranquil forests. Whether you are an urban adventurer or an outdoor enthusiast, a foodie or a thrill-seeker, living, working and playing in Michigan can only be classified as “Pure Michigan.” Breathtaking landscapes, urban escapes, unique attractions, a wealth of events, starry skies and rich culture – YOU can have it ALL in Pure Michigan!

With more than 19 million acres of forests, 11,000 inland lakes and 36,000 miles of rivers and streams you are never far from an opportunity to enjoy the great outdoors in Michigan. Hiking, biking, boating, fishing, hunting and camping are just a few of the ways to experience nature's bounty in the state.

Besides the great employment benefits offered to state workers, there's plenty more to consider.

We are home to seven national parks, heritage areas and trails, three national forests, 103 state parks and recreation areas and more than 2,700 miles of multi-use trails all offering a peaceful respite from life's hectic pace.

The nation's longest freshwater coastline means a stroll along sandy beaches can extend for hundreds of miles and a boating adventure can include ports of call in quaint waterfront communities and vibrant cities. You will be talking about your favorite water sport – sailing, water skiing, wakeboarding, kayaking, canoeing, stand-up paddle boarding – long after you've returned to the dock.

Did we have you at long walks on the beach? Apply Online

Positioned in Lansing Michigan – the capitol city – the state’s top IT job offers an escape from big city life. In Lansing, YOU can be a big fish in a growing city! With so many things to do in Michigan, greater Lansing is at the center of it all.

Home to New York level entertainment venues, the Edythe and Eli Broad Art Museum and Wharton Center, Lansing boasts the Lansing Lugnuts, a minor league baseball team, and Lansing Ignite FC, the only professional outdoor soccer team in Michigan. Big sports fan? There is no shortage of sporting events to attend with Michigan State University just a stone’s throw from the capitol steps.

Not an MSU fan? No worries, we are very accepting.
Don’t believe us... our governor proclaimed it - Michigan is a Welcoming State.

If golf is more your cup of tea be sure to check out this video from Visit the USA to learn about greater Lansing’s championship golf, shopping and nightlife. With more than 650 public golf courses in Michigan, this golf mecca has a course for every level of play.

When it's all said and done it's not all just about playing and having fun. It's about feeling safe in our communities and having healthy schools for our children and future generations.

Michigan has dozens of quaint downtowns, expanding urban areas and strong school districts. Housing is affordable and cost of living is reasonable. Settle down in one of greater Lansing's bedroom communities or commute an hour or so and plant your roots in the greater Detroit or Grand Rapids area. Regardless of where you reside, we hope you #ChooseMichigan.

Why spend One Day in Lansing, when you could spend 365 living, working and playing. Join us and be part of the hard-working heart of Michigan.

Third times the charm, right? Apply NOW Online

Welcome to
PURE MICHIGAN