

IT Student Assistant Positions

Description

Individuals working as students in the Michigan Department of Technology, Management & Budget will assist Senior Level Programmers with a variety of analytical and programming assignments that provide for the development, enhancement and maintenance of automated data, voice or video application programs, application systems and operating systems software within mainframe, network and client server environments.

The many facets of the information technology business afford these positions the opportunity to work in a specific area of interest to the student. Student positions are found in many areas of the department including:

Job Group – Programming

1. Programming
2. Education and/or experience in java
3. Education and/or experience in C#
4. Education and/or experience in Web application development

Job Group – Database Administration

1. Database administration
2. Education and/or experience in Oracle
3. Education and/or experience in Unix Script, PLSQL and/or stored procedures
4. Education and/or experience in relational data modeling
5. Education and/or experience in SQL

Job Group – Networking (Server Support)

1. Networking
2. Education in concepts of computer system detailed network hardware and software structure and support
3. Education in Novell Netware, Citrix and/or Microsoft operating systems

Job Group – Networking (Telecommunications)

1. Networking
2. Education and/or experience in telecommunications network monitoring
3. Education and/or experience in telephone networking