

Arboviruses (Excluding WNV) in Michigan, 2012

Final

* No arboviruses other than West Nile Virus were detected in Michigan patients in 2012

Legend

Counties with humans testing positive for:

- St. Louis Encephalitis (SLE)
- Eastern Equine Encephalitis (EEE)
- LaCrosse (LAC) virus
- Powassan (POW) virus

(Includes confirmed and probable cases)

Produced by MDCH Communicable Disease Division. Map updated as cases identified and testing results become available.

In 2011, there was one confirmed case of LaCrosse virus in Genesee County.

For more information, contact your health department or visit:
www.michigan.gov/emergingdiseases
 OR
www.cdc.gov

