

25. Has Michigan, or have other jurisdictions, incentivized dispatchable renewable sources such as biomass compared to intermittent renewables generation? Why or why not?

Michigan does not have a provision to incentivize dispatchable renewable generations. With the exception of Vermont, no incentives specific to baseload renewable generation were discovered in any other jurisdiction.

In 2012, Vermont added a Baseload Renewable Power Requirement. See H.56:
<http://www.leg.state.vt.us/docs/2012/bills/Passed/H-056.pdf>