

Two Cultures Struggle

The facade of Fort Michilimackinac provides a setting for the story of the struggle between the European and native cultures over furs, land and ways of life. A graphic here shows the value of furs in the barter economy. A map illustrates the ceding of native lands.