

Disclosures

Joint Provider Surveyor Training

September 29, 2015

Purpose: The participant will acquire greater depth of knowledge and skills to promote person centered practices that align with regulatory guidelines for Michigan nursing homes.

Objectives:

- A. Identify the organizational structure of the LARA Bureau of Community and Health Systems
- B. Recognize the functions of State licensing requirements
- C. Explain the Federal certification process
- D. Discuss topics of the Governor's Special Senior Message
- E. Describe how to enable residents to make choices throughout the day
- F. Identify 3 different resident committees that function in creating a sense of community
- G. Relate 3 different ways to enable residents to be connected with their large social community
- H. Examine details that influence discharge planning
- I. Apply the regulatory guidance related to discharge of residents to the community
- J. Identify resources available to coordinate transitions of care for nursing home residents into the community
- K. Demonstrate the importance in honoring resident schedule preferences to facilitate highest practicable quality of life
- L. Describe the regulatory implications of allowing residents to set their own schedules in the long term care setting
- M. Define the Federal and State regulations governing Paid Dining Assistants
- N. Relate how Paid Dining Assistants can be utilized in Michigan's long term care settings
- O. Discuss Life Safety Code surveyors and management changes
- P. Examine ways in which the reporting system is becoming more streamlined
- Q. Define the most commonly cited K tags
- R. Interpret Federal/State Acts associated with the use of bed rails
- S. Discuss surveyor guidelines related to the use of bed rails
- T. Relate best practices for situations when bed rails are indicated
- U. Identify areas of a healthcare facility kitchen that pose the highest risk for foodborne illness transmission
- V. Recognize unsafe food handling practices

Criteria for successful completion: Criteria for successful completion include attendance at the entire event and submission of a completed evaluation form.

Conflict of Interest: No planners or faculty have declared a conflict of interest.

Continuing Education: Nursing

6.0 Contact Hours will be provided.

MPRO (OH-296, 8/1/2018) is an approved provider of continuing nursing education by the Ohio Nurses Association (OBN-001-91), an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.