marijuana-infused alcoholic beverages as well as the Hemp bill that amends the definition of marijuana. He assured the Board that the Department is aware and has been offering feedback. Brisbo reminded the Board that they will be meeting again on October 29, 2018, before the deadline for temporary operation of unlicensed medical marijuana businesses. An applicant must pay the regulatory assessment fee by 10:30 a.m. the morning after receiving its license in order to get the license prior to the deadline. Brisbo updated the Board on the current number of secure transporters that have been approved thus far and provided an update on the rules process as they have been submitted to JCAR. He explained that there are two sets of rules currently in effect.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Heidi Denton – Representing Allegan Substance Abuse Coalition. Discussed the age limit that will be established in the proposed rules. Suggested that buyers and sellers be 21 years of age and that the Department provide training opportunities.

Rachal McCoy -Representing the Health Project – Mercy Health of Muskegon. Discussed marketing and advertisement. Suggested that physicians should not be allowed to advertise on social media outlets.

Kate Kesteloot Scarbrough – Representing Mediation and Restorative Services. Discussed processing centers. Suggested that cannabis waste be licensed through a waste management center and that food licenses be required through the Department of Agriculture to produce edible marijuana products.

Michael Pavlak – Discussed METRC. Was displeased with the training provided by the Department.

Joseph Smith – Indicated it would be helpful for the Board to elaborate on facts forming the basis for license denials.

Craig Dronoff – Thanked the board and the Department. Discussed a concern with the supply chain and hopes the Department is looking for a solution.

Denise Pollicella – Discussed secure transporters and suggested that the Department implement a temporary transfer method. Discussed the time length of the appeal process, and suggested the Department consider an internal review process.

Rick Thompson – Discussed integrity of the Board and the October 31 deadline for temporary operation.
