Chairperson's Report

Kaysserian read a letter to the Board that he'd received from Dr. Manos, a former Board member. Dr. Manos was approached by the MDA Journal in April to write an article about the most frequent health code violations the MDA encounters. The idea was to help give insight to the young professionals in the field, and assist them in avoiding these violations. Dr. Manos contacted Cheryl Pezon, Manager for the Boards and Committees Section, and received approval for the article. The release date of the article in the MDA Journal was intended for June or July 2016. The date was pushed back and the Board can expect to see the article in the January 2017 issue of the MDA Journal.

Kaysserian announced the holiday luncheon will be at Mitchell's Fish Market, following the DSC meeting at 12:30 pm.

Kaysserian informed the Board the CDCA meeting is coming up and he is hoping to see his fellow Board members at the meeting.

Department Update

Carpenter reported that JCAR is meeting on December 12, 2016, to consider waiving the remaining session days. She expect the rules to be final approximately December 13, 2016.

Carpenter explained that the legislature is in lame duck session. There are a large number of bills that are currently awaiting approval. She explained SB 753 regarding telehealth was currently awaiting signature by the Governor.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Mohd Kachlon addressed the Board. Mr. Kachlon introduced himself as the individual who requested the rule exception. He referenced several policies within the ADA Current Policies, Adopted 1954-2015. Mr. Kachlon feels the decision of the Board to deny his request is not the right choice and feels the ADA Current Policies, Adopted 1954-2015 supports his position. He explained that there are three states: Ohio, Tennessee, and Vermont specifically, that accept his credentials in lieu of what the rules state. Mr. Kachlon feels that candidates and their families are being punished by the rule that requires passing of a regional clinical examination.
