Department Update

Roselle introduced Dena Marks as the new board analyst and Stephanie Wysack as the new board support to the Michigan Board of Athletic Trainers.

HB5538 and mandatory reporting of child abuse under the child protection law was brought up by the Board. Roselle advised that athletic trainers are not currently covered under the child protection law. Roselle clarified the circumstances in which a licensed athletic trainer is required to report violations of the Public Health Code to the department.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Gretchen Goodman, President of the Michigan Athletic Trainers Society (MATS), spoke regarding the first aid certification requirement for renewal and her society's willingness to help spread the word.
