NEW BUSINESS

Chairperson's Report

Roels informed the Board that there was a CDCA meeting on January 10-13, 2018. It was a busy meeting that provided information about the CDCA and changes to exams. The CDCA has a new RDA exam that was written for Ohio.

ADEX/CDCA exam is now accepted in 47 jurisdictions with only four states left to accept the exam.

Roels advised that CODA has a testing site that indicated its willingness to have a representative of the state board to participate in a CODA on-site evaluation.

HPRC Representative

Ditschman explained that Joan Lewis is not eligible for HPRC reappointment and therefore the Board should withdraw their reappointment.

MOTION by Johnston, seconded by Chiarvalli, to withdraw the HPRC reappointment of Joan Lewis.

A roll call vote was taken: Yeas: Briskie, Chiaravalli, Franklin, Hale, Heintschel, Inman, Johnston, Kaysserian, Kindel, Maher, Perrone, Priestap, Weidig, Roels
Nays: None

Email Discussion

There was a discussion regarding Board members and committee members responding to "all" in emails. Smith advised that emails can be subject to FOIA.

Exam Discussion

There was discussion regarding examinations. The rules allow 11 pathways for dentistry licensing exams of which the CDCA is the most comprehensive, rigorous exam. Roels invited conversation on exam pathways.

Discussion was held.

Rules Update

Ditschman provided an overview of the draft rules to the Board. There was discussion regarding the RDA exam, anesthesia and sedation training for dentists, signs containing dentists names, the test of English as a foreign language, delegation and assignment, and continuing education. Ditschman suggested that any changes be directed to her or a member of the rules committee so the rules can be voted on at the next meeting.

Department Update

Smith advised the Board of the litigation hold on the Kazor case.

PUBLIC COMMENT

None
