Conrad stated that remote testing was investigated as a way to address issues with difficulties that arose due to the COVID-19 pandemic. She gave an overview of the requirements put in place for the pilot project. She stated that NASBA was asking all state boards to acknowledge that they will accept scores from remote testing. The pilot may be ready as early as late July/early August and will only be available to states in case of emergency situations.

MacIntosh stated that the rules do not specify the modality in which the examination has to be taken, therefore no change to the rule needs to be addressed by the Board.

Przybylo stated that the Department will be advised of the pilot and will communicate with NASBA on the matter.
