The Child Care Organizations Act (PA 116) allows for the issuance of a provisional license when a licensee is temporarily unable to comply with the licensing rules or PA 116. The law includes information about the rights of licensees when a provisional license is recommended. These rights are listed in MCL 722.117a\(3\).

I understand that the department has recommended issuance of a Choose an item. provisional license. I also understand the rights afforded to me. With notice of these rights, I have decided to:

1. Accept issuance of the provisional license.
2. Waive my right to receive written notice of the reason for the proposed modification of my license.
3. Waive my right to have 30 days to appeal the proposed modification to provisional.
4. Waive my right to request an administrative hearing to contest the reason for the proposed modification of my license to provisional.

I understand that I must submit an acceptable written corrective action plan, and by signing and returning this form, my license will be modified to provisional status for six months. I also understand that halfway through the provisional period, I will receive a renewal packet.

I further understand that if I do not sign and return this form, I am contesting the issuance of the provisional license and am requesting written notice of the reason for the provisional. I understand contesting the issuance of a provisional license begins a disciplinary process and that I must still submit a corrective action plan.
