NOTICE AND ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

Julia Dale, the Director (“Administrator”) of the Corporations, Securities & Commercial Licensing Bureau (“Bureau”), pursuant to her statutory authority and responsibility to administer and enforce the Michigan Uniform Securities Act (2002), 2008 PA 551, as amended, MCL 451.2101 et seq. (“Securities Act”), hereby orders John Cucinella (“Respondent”) to cease and desist from offering and selling unregistered securities, from acting as an unregistered agent of an unregistered broker-dealer, and from omitting to state material facts necessary in order to make other statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading in connection with the offer and sale of securities, contrary to the Securities Act. Respondent is notified of the opportunity to request a hearing in this matter.

I. BACKGROUND

A. The Respondent

1. John Cucinella is an individual with a last known address in Brooklyn, New York. He has not been registered in any capacity under the Securities Act since in or around November 2013, and is employed by or associated with Mackrow Asset Management Group, an unregistered broker-dealer.

B. Findings of Fact

1. The Bureau conducted an investigation of Respondent's activities.
2. The investigation developed evidence that Respondent, as an agent of Mackrow Asset Management Group, offered and sold securities which were "investment contract" securities as that term is defined by the Securities Act to Michigan Investor CEW¹.
3. Respondent, as an agent of Mackrow Asset Management Group, offered and sold two funds to Investor CEW, both of which became total losses :
 - A. "Domestic Guard Advantage One", and
 - B. "HealthStrong U.S. Ultra 5.0".
4. The investment contracts sold to Investor CEW were not registered pursuant to the Securities Act, nor has Respondent identified any applicable² exemption, exception, preemption, or exclusion from the applicability of Securities Act.
5. Respondent acted as an unregistered agent of an unregistered broker-dealer when he effected transactions in securities on behalf of Investor CEW in 2017. Respondent has not been registered as an agent in Michigan since 2013, nor has he identified a relevant exemption, exception, preemption, or exclusion from the applicability of the Securities Act.
6. Respondent provided Mackrow Asset Management Group's "Disclosure Statement" to Investor CEW at the opening of the brokerage account. The Disclosure Statement said that Respondent, on behalf of the broker-dealer, agreed "to buy, sell, or otherwise dispose of the investment And [sic] or investment products according to your instructions..." The Disclosure Statement indicated that trade confirmations would be provided and that, unless objected to within 3 days of receipt, would be "conclusive". The Disclosure Statement notably omitted to state that unauthorized trades made without customer instructions would be considered authorized by Mackrow Asset Management Group unless objected to by the customer. A reasonable investor might consider it important to his or her investment decision that an unauthorized trade by his agent could become “authorized” after the fact simply due to the passage of time.

² Respondent took the position that the investments sold to Investor CEW were not "securities" within the scope of the Securities Act, but rather that they were commodities or precious metals. The argument is without merit. The "funds" were baskets of investments which were sold in units to investors, and clearly are not commodities or precious metals; whether the underlying investments made by the funds may have included commodity or precious metal holdings is a separate issue from whether the investment fund units sold to Investor CEW met the definition of "investment contract" under the Securities Act. Evidence gathered during the investigation indicates that the products sold to Investor CEW were securities.

7. Respondent, through Mackrow Asset Management Group, represented in the Disclosure Statement to Investor CEW that the firm would charge various fees to customer accounts and that the value of investments would need to increase sufficiently to cover the cost of the fees for the investment to break even – commonly known as a “break-even point”. Analysis by Bureau staff shows that Investor CEW’s investments with through the broker-dealer would have needed to increase in value by approximately thirteen-point eight percent (13.8%) annually for those investments to break even. Respondent, by providing the firm’s disclosures, identified that investments through the broker-dealer had break-even points, but omitted any statements regarding the actual break-even point for Investor CEW’s investments. A reasonable investor might have considered it important to his or her investment decision to know that an investment with Respondent’s broker-dealer would need to make more than thirteen-point eight percent (13.8%) annually just to avoid losing money.
8. Respondent, as an agent of Mackrow Asset Management Group, represented to Investor CEW that he had a “sure thing” investment for Investor CEW to invest in when a prior investment had failed to materialize as planned. Respondent failed to disclose that the investment might lose all of its value, which is what occurred. A reasonable investor might consider it important to his or her investment decision to know that a “sure thing” investment is not actually a sure thing, and that it may lose all of its value.

II. RELEVANT STATUTORY PROVISIONS

1. Section 102(b) of the Securities Act, MCL 451.2102(b), defines “agent” in part as “an individual other than a broker-dealer who represents a broker-dealer in effecting or attempting to effect purchases or sales of securities...”

(v) The term includes an investment in a common enterprise with the expectation of profits to be derived primarily from the efforts of a person other than the investor. 3. Respondent, John Cucinella, omitted to state a material fact necessary to make other statements made not misleading in connection with the offer or sale of securities when he represented through Mackrow Asset Management Group that he would only effect transactions at the instruction of Investor CEW, but omitted to state that he would make unauthorized trades and the firm would consider the trades to be authorized unless Investor CEW objected within three days of receipt of a trade confirmation. The statement was material and was omitted in connection with the offer or sale of a security, contrary to section 501(b) of the Securities Act, MCL 451.2501(b).
