

ERIK WEIHENMAYER

MTSA PRE-CONFERENCE MARCH 11, 2019

Erik Weihenmayer is one of the most celebrated and accomplished athletes in the world. In 2001, he became the only blind person in history to climb Mount Everest. Erik is the author of the best-selling memoir, Touch the Top of the World, which was made into a feature film, as well as The Adversity Advantage, which shows readers how to turn everyday struggles into everyday greatness.

He is an internationally recognized speaker and brings his message of living a No Barriers Life to audiences around the world. He founded an organization called No Barriers, which helps people with challenges tap into the human spirit, break through barriers and contribute to the world.

“What’s in you is stronger than what’s in the way.”

“Barriers are real. They sometimes get in our way and knock us flat on our backs. Living a No Barriers Life means finding a way through those barriers to pursue a life that truly matters.”

-Erik Weihenmayer

Michigan Transition Services
Association

March 11, 2019

Starting at 12:30 p.m.

https://www.michigantsa.com/conference