

Frequently Asked Questions Fireworks Violations & Fireworks Citation Appeals

1. Question: Who do I contact regarding local ordinances that violate the Michigan Fireworks Safety Act, Public Act (PA) 256 of 2011?

Answer: The Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs (LARA), Bureau of Fire Services (BFS) is responsible for upholding and enforcing the Michigan Fireworks Safety Act. According to the Michigan Fireworks Safety Act, PA 256 of 2011, Section 28.457; a local unit of government may enact an ordinance regulating the ignition, discharge, and use of consumer fireworks, including, but not limited to, an ordinance prescribing the hours of the day or night during which a person may ignite, discharge, or use consumer fireworks. These types of actions are a matter of local concern and therefore, resolution of these issues will be left to the local unit of government or legal remedies available to the interested parties.

2. Question: I am a fireworks certificate retailer. Is it possible that I could be issued a citation?

Answer: Yes. If your retail sales location does not meet the code requirements as described in the Michigan Fireworks Safety Act, PA 256 of 2011, Fireworks Safety General Rules, NFPA 1124, 2006 Edition, Section 7, or NFPA 101, you may be issued a citation. At any time your retail sales location is found to be non-compliant you may be issued a citation and/or charged with a misdemeanor.

3. Question: When is it possible to be issued a citation?

Answer: According to Michigan Fireworks Safety Act, PA 256 of 2011, Section 28.467a; if you are a certificate holder you may be issued a citation at the time of the site inspection or within 90 days after the inspection. The inspector may return at any time for a re-check of the area and if found to be in non-compliance, may issue a citation at that time. If you are not a registered fireworks certificate retailer, you would receive a citation for failure to comply with the requirements of PA 256 of 2011.

4. Question: I received a fireworks citation. What are my options?

Answer: According to the Fireworks Safety General Rules effective March 20, 2014, R29.2920, you may appeal the citation to the State Fire Marshal (SFM) or pay the citation fine. Payments can be made by check, money order or online by credit card.
