National Fire Academy's

Leadership in Supervision: Creating Environments for Professional Growth (F0646)

This FREE two-day course presents the supervisor with the basic leadership skills and tools needed to perform effectively in the fire and EMS environment. The course includes concepts related to a successful transition to supervisory and leadership roles, including concepts of adaptive leadership; change management; active followership; effective communication, including difficult conversations and advocacy-inquiry based dialogue; ethics; authority; power; decision-making; and active engagement through development of a personal plan.

This course has been adopted in Michigan, and all Instructor I participants who successfully complete the course will be eligible to instruct the class in the future.

Application/Registration: An email with the students FEMA SID number must to be sent to MFSIA Executive Vice-President Brian Blomstrom at bblomstrom48@gmail.com to be eligible for the course; incomplete requests will not be added to the list of participants. The preferred method is application using the NFA 75-a short form. The email or form must be provided, by email, no later than December 1, 2019. Space is limited to 30 students. Student selection for the course is the responsibility of the MFSIA, based upon receipt of the NFA Application and a determination of an equal participation ratio from all areas of the State of Michigan - however, priority to fill the class to required student numbers is also necessary.

Lunch/Lodging: Greenville has two hotels available for lodging; lunch is provided on Saturday, courtesy of 1-800-BoardUp.

Paperwork Needed: Participants will need to bring the acceptance email and personalized NFA SID in order to attend the class. If submitted, the NFA form will be returned to the student for final review before being submitted to the NFA Instructor of Record. Students are encouraged to bring a copy of their own pre-filled NFA form to the class as well.
