PROPOSAL FOR DECISION

BACKGROUND

This opinion concludes that Ernest Romer is subject to disciplinary action under MCL 451.2412 (4) (e) (iii) and MCL 451.2412 (4) (m).

On August 8, 2017, the Corporations, Securities & Commercial Licensing Bureau (CSCLB) issued a cease and desist order against Mr. Romer under MCL 451.2604 and a notice of intent to revoke his securities agent license under MCL 451.2412. The CSCLB alleged that Mr. Romer defrauded several customers.

CSCLB requested a hearing, and the hearing convened under MCL 24.271 et seq. on February 13, 2017.

At the hearing, Matthew K. Payok, Assistant Attorney General, represented the CSCLB. Notice of the hearing was sent to Mr. Romer at [REDACTED] Utica, Michigan, 48316, but Mr. Romer did not appear, and the hearing continued in his absence. CSCLB investigator Stephen Scott testified, and three exhibits were placed in evidence.

ISSUES AND APPLICABLE LAW

MCL 451.2412 (2) reads:

If the administrator finds that the order is in the public interest and subsection (4) authorizes the action, an order under this act may revoke, suspend, condition, or limit the registration of a registrant and if the registrant is a broker-dealer or investment adviser, of a partner, officer, or director, or a person having a similar status or performing similar functions, or a person directly or indirectly in control of the broker-dealer or investment adviser....

MCL 451.2412 (4) (e) (iii) reads:

(4) A person may be disciplined under subsections (1) to (3) if ...

(e) The person is the subject of an order, issued after notice and opportunity for hearing by any of the following: ...

(iii) The securities and exchange commission or a self-regulatory organization suspending or expelling the registrant from membership in a self-regulatory organization....

MCL 451.2412 (4) (m) reads:

(4) A person may be disciplined under subsections (1) to (3) if ...

FINDINGS OF FACT

Stephen Scott, regulation officer in the securities and audit division of CSCLB, testified and gave the following information.

Mr. Romer was a securities agent working for CoreCap Investments, Inc. One of his clients was [REDACTED] who had a CoreCap account under Mr. Romer's control.

In April 2016 Mr. Romer withdrew $110,000 from Ms. [REDACTED] CoreCap account without her knowledge or permission and deposited it in a Chase Bank account owned by P&R Capital on which Mr. Romer was the only signer. According to Chase Bank records, Mr. Romer used the money in that account to buy food, retail products, football tickets and to make investments in his own name through investment brokers. There is no evidence in the bank records that Mr. Romer made any payments for the benefit of Ms. [REDACTED] Romer never repaid [REDACTED]

In May 2017 Ernest Romer was barred from the financial industry by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The prohibition became final three months later, in July 2017, when Mr. Romer did not file an appeal. Exhibit 3. Mr. Romer was barred under FINRA Rule 9552 (h) which reads:

A member or person who is suspended under this rule and fails to request termination of the suspension within three months of issuance of the original notice of suspension will automatically be expelled or barred.¹

On August 8, 2017, the CSCLB issued a cease and desist order against Mr. Romer under MCL 451.2604. Exhibit 2. Mr. Romer did not request a hearing on the cease and desist order, and because he did not, the order became final under MCL 451.2604 (2) which reads in part:

If a person subject to the order does not request a hearing and none is ordered by the administrator within 30 days after the date of service of the order, the order, including any civil fine imposed or requirement for payment of the costs of investigation sought in a statement in that order, becomes final as to that person by operation of law....

Since Mr. Romer did not participate in the hearing, the evidence CSCLB presented against him is uncontradicted.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Since the August 8, 2017 cease and desist order became final by operation of law under MCL 451.2604(2), this opinion does not adjudicate that order. This opinion addresses the licensing issue only.

MCL 451.2412 (2) reads:

If the administrator finds that the order is in the public interest and subsection (4) authorizes the action, an order under this act may revoke, suspend, condition, or limit the registration of a registrant and if the registrant is a broker-dealer or investment adviser, of a partner, officer, or director, or a person having a similar status or performing similar functions, or a person directly or indirectly in control of the broker-dealer or investment adviser....

Having been barred from the financial industry by the FINRA, Mr. Romer is subject to disciplinary action under MCL 451.2412 (4) (e) (iii).

Having engaged in dishonest, unethical practice with respect to the [REDACTED] account, diverting her money for his own benefit, Mr. Romer is subject to disciplinary action under MCL 451.2412 (4) (m).

Pursuant to MCL 24.281 and 2015 AACR R 792.10132, the parties may file exceptions to this proposal for decision within 21 days after the proposal for decision is issued and entered. An opposing party may file a response to exceptions within 14 days after exceptions are filed. All exceptions and responses must be filed with the Michigan Administrative Hearing System, P.O. NOTICE AND ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

Julia Dale, the Director of the Corporations, Securities & Commercial Licensing Bureau (the "Administrator"), pursuant to her statutory authority and responsibility to administer and enforce the Michigan Uniform Securities Act (2002), 2008 PA 551, as amended, MCL 451.2101 et seq ("Securities Act"), hereby orders Ernest J. Romer III ("Respondent") to cease and desist from engaging in an act, practice, or course of business that operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon another person in connection with the offer or sale of securities, contrary to the Securities Act. Respondent is notified of the opportunity to request a hearing in this matter.

I. BACKGROUND

A. The Respondent

1. Ernest J. Romer III (CRD#2311741) ("Respondent") is an individual that resides in the State of Michigan. Respondent was previously registered as an agent through a Michigan-registered broker-dealer, Corecap Investments, Inc. (CRD#37068) ("Corecap"). Respondent was terminated by Corecap for failing to disclose outside business activities, and for engaging in unauthorized transactions with customers. (Exhibit 1 – Corecap Form U5).

B. Findings of Fact

1. The Bureau conducted an investigation of Respondent's Activities.

2. The investigation developed evidence that Respondent convinced several Corecap customers to liquidate securities held in their Corecap accounts to make alternative investments with Respondent. However, Rather than invest the funds for the customers' benefit, Respondent deposited the cash generated by the securities liquidations into an account that he controlled, and used the money for non-investment purposes that only benefitted him.
3. Respondent took $190,000.00 from Customer MR¹ between July of 2014 and April of 2016 for what Customer MR believed to be investment purposes. This included a $110,000.00 withdrawal from Customer MR's Corecap account after Respondent liquidated $104,268.96 of stock in the account. Rather than deposit the funds into a brokerage account to buy investments for Customer MR's benefit, Respondent deposited the funds into an account which he controlled and utilized the funds for his own benefit.
4. Respondent took $115,000.00 from Customer GP² on or around January 5, 2015 after Respondent convinced Customer GP to liquidate $157,052.78 of stock from his Corecap brokerage account. Customer GP believed that Respondent was going to invest the funds for Customer GP's benefit. Rather than invest the money for Customer GP's benefit, Respondent deposited the funds into an account which he controlled and utilized the funds for his own benefit.
5. Respondent took $46,000.00 from Customer RK³ on or around April 30, 2015 after Respondent convinced Customer RK to liquidate stock in an IRA to fund the purchase of an annuity. Rather than purchase the annuity as promised, Respondent deposited the funds into an account which he controlled and utilized the funds for his own benefit.

II. RELEVANT STATUTORY PROVISIONS

1. Section 102(c) of the Securities Act defines "Security", in part, as:

a note; stock; treasury stock; security future; bond; debenture; evidence of indebtedness; certificate of interest or participation in a profit-sharing agreement; collateral trust certificate; preorganization certificate or subscription; transferable share; investment contract; voting trust certificate; certificate of deposit for a security; fractional undivided interest in oil, gas, or other mineral rights; put, call, straddle, option, or privilege on a security, certificate of deposit, or group or index of securities, including an interest in or based on the value of that put, call, straddle, option, or privilege on that security, certificate of deposit, or group or index of securities, put, call, straddle, option, or privilege entered into on a national securities exchange relating to foreign currency, an investment in a viatical or life settlement agreement; or, in general, an interest or instrument commonly known as a “security”; or a certificate of interest or participation in, temporary or interim certificate for, receipt for, guarantee of, or warrant or right to subscribe to or purchase, any of the foregoing...

2. Section 501 of the Securities Act, MCL 451.2501, states:

It is unlawful for a person, in connection with the offer, sale, or purchase of a security or the organization or operation of a Michigan investment market under article 4A, to directly or indirectly do any of the following:...

- (a) Employ a device, scheme, or artifice to defraud.
- (b) Make an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.
- (c) Engage in an act, practice, or course of business that operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit on another person.

III. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Respondent Ernest J. Romer III engaged in an act, practice, or course of business that operated as a fraud or deceit on another person in connection with the offer or sale of securities when he convinced Customer MR to liquidate securities, then accepted the proceeds of the liquidation to invest on Customer MR’s behalf, but instead deposited the funds into an account that he controlled, and used the funds for his own benefit, rather than the benefit of Customer MR. 2. Respondent Ernest J. Romer III engaged in an act, practice, or course of business that operated as a fraud or deceit on another person in connection with the offer or sale of securities when he convinced Customer GP to liquidate securities, then accepted the proceeds of the liquidation to invest on Customer GP’s behalf, but instead deposited the funds into an account that he controlled, and used the funds for his own benefit, rather than the

I. RELEVANT FACTS AND APPLICABLE LAW.

Relevant information and statutory provisions, under the Michigan Uniform Securities Act (2002), 2008 PA 551, as amended, MCL 451.2101 et seq (the "Securities Act"):

1. Ernest J. Romer III ("Respondent") has been registered as a securities agent through multiple broker-dealers since in or around 1993. (Exhibit 1 – Registrations Summary). Respondent's most recent registration was through Corecap Investments, Inc. (CRD# 37068) ("Corecap"), a Michigan-registered broker-dealer firm. Respondent's most recent registration was terminated on or around January 23, 2017 due to his failure to disclose and provide Corecap with notice of an outside business activity, and for engaging in prohibited client transactions by allowing wire transfers from clients into outside accounts of an entity controlled by Respondent. (Exhibit 1).
2. The Corporations, Securities & Commercial Licensing Bureau ("the Bureau") within the Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs began an investigation of Respondent's activities in the securities industry.
3. The Bureau's investigation developed evidence that Respondent convinced four of his Corecap customers, GM, MR, GP, and RK, to give him money to invest on their behalf through their brokerage accounts; however, rather than invest the funds as represented, Respondent deposited the funds in a checking account that he controlled and used the funds for his own benefit.
4. Each of GM, MR, GP, and RK believed that Respondent was soliciting and accepting funds to invest in securities through brokerage accounts on their behalf. Respondent solicited and accepted funds as follows:

- A. GM gave a check to Respondent for $150,000.00 on or around December 15, 2015 which Respondent deposited into an account that only he could access;
 - B. GM gave a check to Respondent for $100,000.00 on or around January 12, 2016 which Respondent deposited into an account that only he could access;
 - C. MR gave a cashier's check to Respondent for $40,000.00 on or around July 11, 2014 which Respondent deposited into an account that only he could access;
 - D. MR gave a check to Respondent for $32,000.00 on or around November 10, 2015 that was deposited into an account that only Respondent could access on or around November 12, 2015;
 - E. MR gave a cashier's check to Respondent for $40,000.00 on or around December 2, 2015 that was deposited into an account that only Respondent could access;
 - F. A wire transfer of $110,000.00 from MR's Corecap account was made to an account Respondent controlled on or around April 11, 2016¹;
 - G. GP gave a check to Respondent for $115,000.00 on or around December 30, 2014 that was deposited into an account that only Respondent could access on or around January 5, 2015²; and
 - H. RK gave a cashier's check to Respondent for $46,000.00 on or around April 30, 2015 that was deposited into an account that only Respondent could access.
- 5. Respondent has not accounted for the funds he solicited and accepted from customers GM, MR, GP, or RK.
 - 6. Customer GM was born in 1935; Customer MR was born in 1931; Customer GP was born in 1946; and Customer RK was born in 1949.
 - 7. On or around April 13, 2017 and May 8, 2017, the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") notified Respondent that he was suspended from association with any FINRA member as a result of his conduct. FINRA converted the suspension to an indefinite bar, barring Respondent from association with any FINRA member indefinitely on or around July 17, 2017. (Exhibit 2 – FINRA Form U6).
 - 8. The Director ("Administrator") of the Bureau has reviewed materials relating to Respondent's actions as a registrant under the Securities Act. The Administrator has determined that it is authorized, appropriate, and in the public interest to revoke Respondent's securities agent registration based upon Respondent's conduct discussed above and hereafter.

¹ MR does not recall authorizing the transfer and believes Respondent had her sign a blank form then filled it in to effectuate the transaction.

² GP owed approximately $35,000.00 in taxes as a result of this transaction. When GP asked Respondent about this, Respondent wired that amount to GP to satisfy the tax liability.

9. Section 409 of the Securities Act, MCL 451.2409, states in relevant part:

Withdrawal of registration by a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative is effective 60 days after an application to withdraw is filed or within a shorter period as provided by rule or order under this act, unless a revocation or suspension proceeding is pending when the application is filed. If a proceeding is pending, withdrawal is effective when and on conditions required by rule or order under this act. The administrator may institute a revocation or suspension proceeding under section 412 within 1 year after the withdrawal became effective automatically and issue a revocation or suspension order as of the last date on which registration was effective if a proceeding is not pending. (Emphasis added).

10. Section 412(2) of the Securities Act, MCL 451.2412(2), states in relevant part:

If the administrator finds that the order is in the public interest and subsection (4) authorizes the action, an order under this act may revoke, suspend, condition, or limit the registration of a registrant and if the registrant is a broker-dealer or investment adviser, of a partner, officer, director, or a person having a similar status or performing similar functions, or a person directly or indirectly in control of the broker-dealer or investment adviser...

11. Section 412(3) of the Securities Act, MCL 451.2412(3), states:

If the administrator finds that the order is in the public interest and subsection (4)(a) to (f), (i) to (j), or (l) to (n) authorizes the action, an order under this act may censure, impose a bar, or impose a civil fine in an amount not to exceed a maximum of $10,000.00 for a single violation or $500,000.00 for more than 1 violation on a registrant...

12. Section 412(4) of the Securities Act, MCL 451.2412(4) states in relevant part:

(4) A person may be disciplined under subsections (1) to (3) if any of the following apply to the person:

(e) The person is the subject of an order, issued after notice and opportunity for hearing by any of the following:

(iii) the securities and exchange commission or a self-regulatory organization suspending or expelling the registrant from membership in a self-regulatory organization.

(m) The person has engaged in dishonest or unethical practices in the securities, commodities, investment, franchise, banking, finance, or insurance business within the previous 10 years...

13. Section 412(7) of the Securities Act, MCL 451.2412(7), states:

(7) Except under subsection (6), an order shall not be issued under this section unless all of the following have occurred:

- (a) Appropriate notice has been given to the applicant or registrant.
- (b) Opportunity for hearing has been given to the applicant or registrant.
- (c) Findings of fact and conclusions of law have been made on the record pursuant to the administrative procedures act of 1969, 1969 PA 306, MCL 24.201 to 24.328.

14. The Administrator may revoke Respondent's securities agent registration pursuant to section 412(2) of the Securities Act, MCL 451.2412(2), because it is in the public interest, and because:

- A. Respondent is subject of an order issued by a self-regulatory organization, FINRA, suspending and subsequently barring him from association with any broker-dealer or other FINRA member, giving the Administrator cause to issue an order under sections 409, 412(2), 412(3), and 412(4)(e)(iii) of the Securities Act, MCL 451.2409, MCL 451.2412(2), MCL 451.2412(3), and MCL 451.2412(4)(e)(iii).
- B.
