STIPULATION

The parties stipulate as follows:

1. The facts alleged in the Formal Complaints (numbers 21-17-331820 and 21-17-331818) are true and constitute a violation of the Occupational Code.
2. The Director of the Bureau of Professional Licensing, or her designee, must approve this consent order and stipulation before it is submitted to the Board for final approval.

3. Respondents understand and intend that, by signing this stipulation, they are waiving the right under the Occupational Code, rules promulgated under the Occupational Code, and the Administrative Procedures Act of 1969, 1969 PA 306, as amended, MCL 24.201 et seq., to require the Department to prove the charges set forth in the complaints by presentation of evidence and legal authority, and to present a defense to the charges. Should the Board reject the proposed consent order, the parties reserve the right to proceed to hearing.

4. This matter is a public record required to be published and made available to the public pursuant to section 11(1)(a) of the Michigan Freedom of Information Act, 1976 PA 442, as amended.

5. The Board may enter the above Consent Order, supported by Board conferee Sidney Browne, Jr.

6. Mr. Browne and the parties considered the following factors in reaching this agreement:

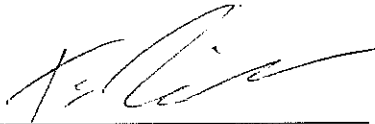

A. Respondents indicated that monies sent to Smith Lumber for purchases made for the Sielawa home were inadvertently credited to other outstanding debts owed by Respondents to Smith Lumber. Respondents asserted that they failed to ensure that the Sielawas' money was credited to the correct invoices.

B. Respondents assert that a mistake in the building plans caused some of the delay in the project. Respondents recognized that they had the responsibility to ensure the accuracy of the plans produced by the plan company hired by Respondents.

C. Respondent Joseph Yahner stated that he had a friendship with the Sielawas and therefore felt comfortable relying on verbal assurances instead of having the contract and written change orders constitute the full agreement and dictate the scope of the project. He admitted that under this arrangement he failed his obligation as a residential builder to protect both the homeowners and himself with complete written agreements.

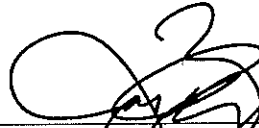

By signing this stipulation, the parties confirm that they have read, understand and agree with the terms of the consent order.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

11. On or about June 11, 2016 Respondent, through Joseph Yahner, contracted with Paul and Cindy ("the owners") to build a two-story home based on building plans from HDA, Inc. Respondent agreed to a contract price of $90,000.00.

12. The contract stated that "[t]he owner shall provide some labor and material during the course of the project." The contract did not include the amount of work to be done by the owners, nor did it include the type and quality of materials the owners would provide.

13. The contract included building plans with handwritten modifications on the plans. The contract also included a typewritten addendum explaining the agreed-upon modifications to the standard plans.

14. Respondent agreed to commence work on or before July 1, 2016 and substantially complete the work on or before March 1, 2017.

15. Respondent agreed to request, and the owners agreed to pay, periodic draws with the final $8,000.00 coming due after the completion of the punch list and final inspection.

- f. $27,000.00 on September 28, 2016.
- g. In total, the owners paid $73,495.00.

17. Some of these draws were to pay for lumber from Smith Lumber, but Respondent did not pay Smith Lumber all the monies owed. The monies were diverted elsewhere.

18. Some of these draws were to pay for excavation and other work performed by Campbell Excavating, but Respondent did not pay Campbell Excavating all the monies owed. The monies were diverted elsewhere.

19. By November 2016, Respondent had built a portion of the house, but Respondent had not, among other things, finished framing the second floor, installing stairs to the second floor, or installing a roof.

20. The owners tried to help Respondent, but because of the state of the project, their assistance was limited.

21. Respondent claimed the delays in construction were due, in part, to change orders by the owners, but Respondent has failed to produce written change orders or other documentation showing these changes.

22. On or about November 19, 2016, the owners decided to hire another builder to complete the project.

23. On or about January 16, 2017, Joseph Yahner filed for bankruptcy.
