GENERAL LICENSING INFORMATION

According to 1973 PA 116, a license or certificate of registration is issued to a specific person(s) for a specific address and is not transferable.

When changing from a family to a group home, the number of children in care may not be more than 6 until the group home license becomes effective.

If a provider is licensed as a group child care home but is caring for 6 or less children, the group child care home rules still apply.

Local municipalities have zoning ordinances that may apply to child care homes. It is the applicant's responsibility to comply with local zoning ordinances.

If a child care provider has any questions about how to comply with the rules or how to improve the quality of care, technical assistance or consultation may be requested from the licensing consultant.

If a parent or guardian has reason to believe the family or group child care home in which he/she has placed his/her child is not complying with the appropriate rules, she/he should discuss it with the child care provider. If the provider does not make adequate corrections, the parent may file a complaint with the Department. The local licensing office can assist in this process.

No one person, agency or law can guarantee protection and a healthy, stimulating environment for Michigan's children in child care. We can, however, work together cooperatively as parents, providers, communities and government agencies to achieve this common goal.

APPENDIX C

PROMULGATION PROCESS/SUGGESTED CHANGES

The promulgation process was lengthy. This was due in part to the Department’s desire to develop rules that are clear, reasonable, necessary, fair and enforceable. Serious consideration was given to the recommendations of the Ad Hoc Committee, licensees, many child care organizations, interested citizens, parents, and staff.

In the interest of continuing to serve the public by considering its wishes, the Department would welcome any comments or suggestions that you feel will help improve future revisions of these regulations. Your comments will be reviewed when changes in the rules are being considered. 1973 PA 116 requires the Department to conduct a review of the rules every other year and a major review by an Ad Hoc Committee every five years.
